

Sussex Archaeology Symposium 2013

The Fulton Building, Lecture Theatre A, University of Sussex, Falmer

Run in conjunction with the Centre for Community Engagement (CCE) of the University of Sussex, this event provides illustrated accounts of recent archaeological fieldwork and research in Sussex.

Programme: Saturday 27th April 2013

- 9.20 REGISTRATION
Tea and coffee (even breakfast!) will be available for purchase from Bramber House which is opposite the Fulton Building. There will be various book and equipment stalls in Fulton.
- 10.00 Welcome by the Chairperson Dr Elizabeth Somerville (University of Sussex)
- 10.10 Preserving the past for the digital future: Sussex portable antiquities in the digital age.
Dr Jaime Kaminski (Brighton University) & Stephanie Smith (Portable Antiquities Scheme & SAS).
- 11.00 Bath houses, back yards and burials: recent excavations by ASE in Chichester
Diccon Hart (Archaeology South-East)
- 11.30 COFFEE
- 12.00 The Barcombe Roman Project, 1999-2012
David Rudling (University of Sussex)
- 12.35 The Culver Archaeology Project and a newly discovered Roman settlement
Rob Wallace and David Millum (CAP)
- 1.05 Questions
- 1.15 LUNCH
- 2.15 Roman Roads and Roadside Settlements in Sussex
David Staveley (Independent Archaeologist)
- 2.45 Rocky Clump, Stanmer: further Romano-British discoveries
John Funnell (Brighton & Hove Archaeological Society)
- 3.15 TEA
- 3.40 Community Archaeology at Old St Helen's Church and Brede High Woods
Chris Butler (The Sussex School of Archaeology)
- 4.15 The Stiances Archaeological Project: Working with Children and Animals
Simon Stevens (Archaeology South-East)
- 4.45 Questions
- 5.00 CLOSE

LUNCH Delegates will be able to use the ground floor restaurant in the Bramber Building, where drinks and both hot and cold meals/snacks will be available.

The Sussex School of Archaeology Limited
Unit 12 Mays Farm Selmeston Polegate East Sussex BN26 6TS Telephone:01323 811785
info@sussexarchaeology.co.uk www.sussexarchaeology.co.uk