

Above: the bombing of Marks & Spencer, Eastbourne, killing and injuring a store full of Christmas shoppers on 18th December 1942

How to donate

This is a community project run by the Eastbourne Civilian War Memorial Trust and all donations, however large or small, will be gratefully received.

CHEQUE/postal order/CAF voucher: Made payable to Eastbourne Civilian War Memorial Trust, and sent to: 50 Pashley Road, Eastbourne BN20 8EA; or

BANK TRANSFER: To Lloyds Bank account 59492360, sort code 30-92-86 (please use your name as reference); or ONLINE: Find the Eastbourne Civilian War Memorial Trust on JustGiving.

About the Eastbourne Civilian War Memorial Trust

Objects: To establish a civilian war memorial at the Wish Tower, Eastbourne in memory of the people killed and injured in the bombing raids on the town during the war of 1939-45 and in memory of the fortitude of residents during those years.

Registered charity number 1166417

Address: 50 Pashley Road, Eastbourne BN20 8EA
 Website: www.ecwmt.org
 Email: info@ecwmt.org

Trustees: John Boyle, Peter Pyemont, Peter Austin, David Long.

Help us raise £75,000 to fund a permanent memorial and peace garden dedicated to the 180 civilians who died and all those injured in bombing raids on Eastbourne in World War II

funding appeal

The Eastbourne Civilian War Memorial Trust